

Widow's Waltz Nicole Edwards

G C G
He'd seen her around town. She used to smile at him

D
At the Orange Hall he asked her to dance

G C G
Her steps matched his time. Across the dance floor they traveled

D G
They began the Lover's Waltz

D C G
He used to say: I never thought love could happen to me

D C G
He used to say: You are so beautiful

C G
My love, let's go out dancing

D G
We'll waltz our worries away

C G
and they danced in a spring meadow

D
they danced on the back porch

G C G
they danced through joy and sorrow

D G
Now she dances the Widow's Waltz

D C G
There were times when she'd pretend he's out working

D C G
There were nights when sleep would not come at all

C G
Other times she'd cuddle with their daughter

D G
teaching her the Widow's Waltz

C G
and they danced in a spring meadow

D
they danced on the back porch

G C G

they danced through joy and sorrow

Bridge:

D G

The town was shaken to the core

D G

For he never left the factory floor

D G

How could she know when he walked out the door

C D G

That she would never see him anymore

D C G

And there are many other widows in her town

D C G

like Mrs Merle Ralston and Mrs Frank Brown

C G

They have their luncheons, they quilt and go traveling

D G

dancing the Widow's Waltz

C G

and they dance at their children's weddings,

D

square dances, line dances at the Legion Hall

G C Em

They dance through joy and sorrow
